

42 Garden Place, Westwood, NJ 07675 • 201.406.0854 • blutjens@gmail.com • bradlutjens.com

OBJECTIVE

To apply my industrial designer's skill-set in the product design industry.

EDUCATION

Rochester Institute of Technology, Rochester, NY

Major: Industrial Design

Concentration: Anthropology/Sociology

Degree: Bachelor of Fine Arts

GPA: 3.696

SPECIAL SKILLS

lacquer-based cabinet finishing

cabinet distressing

COMPUTER SKILLS

(Proficient)

Adobe Photoshop

Adobe Illustrator

SolidWorks

Dreamweaver

(Familiar with)

Alias

Flash

Rhino

Adobe InDesign

EMPLOYMENT

December 2009 – Present

ehaberdasher.com (Ben and Julie, Inc.) Glen Rock, NJ

Work mostly in Photoshop. Responsibilities include taking photographs of men's and women's clothing, high volume photograph touch-up and image processing for the web, and data entry / product preparation for ebay sale items.

November 2008 – June 2009

A2 Inc., New York, New York

Intern at industrial design firm. Various responsibilities, including, photographing of products and models, development and construction of full scale test rigs, SolidWorks flatware modeling, other SolidWorks product development, printing of 3D models to a stereolithography machine, product development hand sketching, putting together presentation packets via PDF documents to send to clients, 3D sketching.

December - February 2008

DF-id, Cliffside Park, New Jersey

Intern at industrial design firm. Created both 2D and 3D concept development sketches for desktop organizers, clocks, travel clocks, and pens. Form as well as mechanical problems were both areas of focus. Sketching was done primarily in pencil, Adobe Illustrator, and in low-density foam

HONORS

Dean's List, Sill Hall Scholarship winner for academic achievement

ACTIVITIES

IDSA student member, Intramural Soccer

REFERENCES

Available upon request